I AGREE:

The Theodore Roosevelt Medora Foundation will not be responsible for any loss of, personal injury from, or damage to horses boarded and/or involved equipment. Each owner will be responsible for any injury sustained to any person or animal; or damage to any property by their personal horse. Neither management nor TRMF shall be held liable or provide compensation for claims or damages from injury or damage of property caused by a boarded horse. Presentation of the personal horse boarding agreement form shall be deemed acceptance of these rules. I certify that I am the owner or duly authorized agent for owner of the horse(s) listed above and agree to be bound by all the rules, including but not limited to, those which discuss liability, risk, damage, responsibility, and indemnity.
